

PSAC-UPCE OUR WORKPLACE ISSUES

STAMP OUT
workplace unfairness!

UPCE-PSAC locals from coast to coast to coast are getting ready to strategize at the UPCE National Mobilization Conference being held in Ottawa at the Westin Hotel on July 19-20, 2008.

The delegates will be preparing a national action plan to mobilize the UPCE membership around their bargaining issues and support for their bargaining team. We are ready to negotiate with Canada Post Corporation, however with the expiration of the collective agreement just around the corner we will need to make them move a lot faster than previous years.

“We are preparing and will be ready.” says Richard Des Lauriers National President of the Union of Postal Communications Employees.

The membership needs to feel respected by seeing promises kept by this employer. We have worked together to improve the working lives of UPCE/PSAC members working at Canada Post and the time is here for this Employer to put us on a level playing field with others who do the same work. They need to treat us the way we deserve to be treated with RESPECT and FAIRNESS..

We are hoping that this employer will finally stop playing games at the table. if the employer gets serious about negotiations, we can get this done, but if they do not, we will be ready to let them know that the members of UPCE/PSAC work in solidarity and support their bargaining team and demands. We stand united as one!

Moya Greene talks a good talk, but she also needs to walk the walk. She must say what she means and do what she says and that may begin to build the modern Post with the membership of UPCE/PSAC.

Check out psac-afpc.com to see all of our bargaining demands